Lower-cost housing in metropolitan Melbourne 1995 and 2015

Note: Lower-cost housing for the purpose of this illustration is defined as the cheapest 25% of all houses sold in Melbourne in the relevant year. In 1995 this was houses that sold for less than $100,000. In 2015 it was houses that sold for less than $415,000.